

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE
WEATHER BUREAU

The John Camparius Holm Award

PRESENTED TO Lindsay W. Crook

for outstanding accomplishment in the field of meteorological observations.

J. A. DeBenedictis
CHIEF, U. S. WEATHER BUREAU

June 2, 1960

* CITATION *

For faithfully carrying on since 1939 a volunteer weather observational program, while at Heber, Utah, where his grandfather, John Crook, began it, unofficially in 1896 and officially in 1893, and where his uncle, H. G. Crook, continued it from 1921 to 1939 - making, in all, a hundred year span of one family's devotion to public service.

THOMAS JEFFERSON AWARD

LINDSAY W. CROOK

CITATION:
*For over 100 years
of outstanding family
achievement as weather
observers in Heber Valley, Utah.*

For unusual and outstanding accomplishment in the field of meteorological observations in the tradition of Thomas Jefferson, pioneer weather observer and third President of the United States.

A. B. Lindbergh

Secretary of Commerce
Robert M. White
Administrator, ESSA

1967

1967